

Bill Pratt leads and unleashes potential at every turn. Known for inspiring, unifying, and creating, Bill has spent 30 years as a charity leader. He uses kindness as his compass and storytelling as his superpower. His stories entertain and transform. He is President of Leadership by Pratt, a business committed to unleashing the potential of charities and their leaders.

He serves on the board of directors for the Kids Brain Health Network and Parachute Canada – Preventing Injuries Saving Lives. He is Chair of the Public Advisory Councils for the Health Data Research Network of Canada and the Health Research Data Platform Saskatchewan.

He is co-host and co-producer for a podcast, For the Love of Kindness.

Bill holds a Master's Degree in Leadership and was a Certified Fundraising Executive (CFRE) for 15 years.