

Kellie Garrett, PCC, ICD.D

Kellie is a speaker, executive coach and consultant on leadership, internal culture change, governance and business strategy. She coaches individuals, teams and boards on improving communication, engaging in constructive conflict, and enhancing performance. She is a Master Facilitator at Brené Brown's company Brave Leaders Inc., teaching leaders how to demonstrate courage and vulnerability in the workplace. Prior to becoming an entrepreneur in 2013, Kellie was a Senior VP at Farm Credit Canada, responsible for business strategy, enterprise risk management, the customer experience, and reputation management. She is a certified as a board director, coach and communication expert.

Kellie is passionate about helping others reach their potential by enhancing leadership and personal behaviours. She was named one of Canada's 100 Most Powerful Women in 2007 and Top 25 Women of Influence in 2012. An ardent volunteer, she also received the Red Cross Humanitarian Award (SK) in 2014, primarily for her work in the area of autism.