

The Story of G -

Glenda Boynton grew up in Ogema, SK. She graduated from the University of Regina with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree with distinction. Upon completion, she joined what was then Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co. (a predecessor firm to what is now known as KPMG). There she obtained her Chartered Accounting Designation in 1987 and went on to specialize in tax by completing a variety of courses offered by the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants (In-depth Tax, Corporate Reorganizations, Wealth Preservation, Estates & Trusts, Succession Planning, etc.). In 1999, she also obtained her Certified Financial Planner designation and thereafter, completed the Canadian Securities Course.

She spent more than 20 years with KPMG, working predominantly with entrepreneurs and high net worth individuals and their families. She also worked with a number of financial institutions over the course of her career. After leaving KPMG, Glenda became the CFO for the Paradigm Consulting Group of Companies and worked there until her retirement.

Shortly after her retirement from Paradigm, Glenda joined the Board at RAA and currently serves as Chair of the Audit & Finance Committee and as a member of the Pension Advisory Committee. She has since completed the ICD-Rotman, Directors Education Program (April 2018) and obtained her designation from the Institute of Corporate Directors, ICD.D (May 2018).

She currently resides in Regina with her husband and has two sons. She has volunteered with a variety of organizations over the course of career including Women Entrepreneurs of Saskatchewan and the Canadian Association of Family Enterprises.
