

Renu Kapoor, MSW, SVM
159 Windfield Road
Regina, Saskatchewan

Renu was born, raised and educated in India. She did her graduate studies in U.S.A in clinical Social work. Regina has been her home since 1965. She worked with Regina Health District for over 35 years and presently self employed as a consultant.

She has been very much involved in the Regina Community for more than 50 years at all levels including her professional organizations of Social Workers. She has helped numerous organizations to successfully fund-raised over two million dollars for Provincial, local and international charities.

She has won many awards Including 2016 Rays of Hope Award from Schizophrenia Society of Saskatchewan, 2015 Governor General Sovereign Medal for volunteerism, 2014 UOR President's Community Leadership Award, 2012 Diamond Jubilee, 2010 CTV Citizen of the Year Medal, 2007 YWCA Life Time Achievement Award, 2003 Saskatchewan Volunteer Medal, 2003 Flare volunteer Leadership Award, The Queen's Jubilee Medal, Saskatchewan Centennial Medal, Saskatchewan Social Work Award, and many others.

She has served on many boards including Osteoporosis Canada, Regina Public Library, Regina Housing Authority, Canadian Centre on Substance Abuse, South Saskatchewan Community Foundation, Sask Culture and few others.

At present she is serving on Community Foundations of Canada & Cultural Connections Regina. Community involvement and engagement has been her passion.