

Tyler Willox – Vice President, Public Sector, ISM Canada

Tyler is the Vice President of Public Sector at ISM Canada - a wholly-owned subsidiary of IBM, headquartered in Regina, Saskatchewan. Tyler leads a team of sales and delivery professionals who assist clients across the country with their technological and digital transformations. In this role, he is committed to Saskatchewan's Growth Plan: The Next Decade of Growth 2020-2030 and is working with ISM to expand the technology ecosystem, create new Saskatchewan technology jobs and triple the industry by 2030.

Tyler previously held positions at ISC (TSX: ISV), including Global Government Relations Lead and Strategic Initiatives Lead for the President & CEO. In 2013, Tyler supported the company's transition from Crown Corporation to publicly traded company. During his subsequent eight years with ISC, Tyler led business development and M&A initiatives, working with public sector clients around the world.

Tyler serves on the Board of Directors of Saskatchewan Polytechnic, the Regina Airport Authority, and is a founding board member of the IT Solutions Association of Saskatchewan, the industry voice for over 2000 IT professionals in Saskatchewan. In 2017, Tyler served as one of the youngest Chairs of the Regina & District Chamber of Commerce. As Chamber Chair, Tyler was asked to represent Canada as a member of the 2017 G20 Young Entrepreneurs Alliance Summit.

Tyler's other community and volunteer work includes being a former member of the University of Regina Senate, Vice Chair of CNIB Saskatchewan's Board of Directors and the City of Regina Municipal Heritage Advisory committee. Tyler has been the recipient of multiple awards including the 2019 University of Regina Alumni Crowning Achievement Award for Outstanding Young Alumni, and the 2017 CBC Saskatchewan Future 40 award, which recognized him as one of the province's top leaders, builders and change-makers under the age of 40.

Tyler holds a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration from the University of Regina and a Masters in Business Administration from Queen's University.

He lives in Regina with his partner, Andrea and his English bulldog, Dougie.
