

Tyler Willox
Strategic Adviser, Corporate Development
Information Services Corporation (ISC)

Tyler is a Strategic Adviser at ISC (TSX:ISV), the leading provider of registry and information management services for public data and records. Tyler helped the company transition from a Crown Corporation into a publicly traded company, and today continues to lead growth opportunities for the organization.

Tyler holds a Bachelors Degree in Business Administration from the University of Regina and recently completed his MBA at Queens University. Tyler serves on the Board of Directors for The Regina Airport Authority, Saskatchewan Polytechnic, and CNIB Saskatchewan. In 2017, Tyler served as one of the youngest Chairs of the Regina & District Chamber of Commerce in its 132 year history.

In this role he was asked to represent Canada as a member of the 2017 G20 Young Entrepreneurs Alliance Summit. Tyler continues to serve on the Regina Chamber Board. Tyler's other community and volunteer work includes being a former member of the University of Regina Senate, City of Regina Municipal Heritage Advisory committee and Vice-President of the University of Regina Students' Union.

Tyler was the recipient of the 2017 CBC Saskatchewan Future 40 award, which recognized him as one of the province's top leaders, builders and change-makers under 40.
