

New Year New Flights NewLeaf!

Regina International Airport (YQR) is starting the New Year with three new non-stop routes! Effective February 12, 2016, YQR will welcome Canada's newest, ultra-low cost travel company NewLeaf and the start of two new non-stop flights to Kelowna, British Columbia and Hamilton, Ontario. The third non-stop route to Abbotsford, British Columbia will start on March 14, 2016. All flights are served by Boeing 737-400 aircraft.

"YQR welcomes the opportunity to host a new carrier and we are thrilled with the opportunities they bring to our community," said Dick Graham, President and CEO, Regina Airport Authority. "We are pleased to welcome NewLeaf and delighted to be able to provide convenient air travel between three great Canadian destinations and partner airports in Kelowna, Hamilton and Abbotsford."

Effective February 12, 2016 to March 13, 2016, the new non-stop routes from Regina to Kelowna and Hamilton will be as follows:

- Departures from Regina to Kelowna one time per week (Sunday)
- Departures from Regina to Hamilton one time per week (Thursday)

Effective March 14, 2016 to May 1, 2016, the new non-stop routes from Regina to Kelowna, Hamilton and Abbotsford will be as follows:

- Departures from Regina to Kelowna increase to two times per week (Monday, Saturday)
- Departures from Regina to Hamilton one time per week (Thursday)
- Departures from Regina to Abbotsford two times per week (Monday, Saturday)
